Another Influenza Death

Lewis Augustine Muller, who just two weeks ago today, acted as a bearer at the funeral of his cousin, Augustus Wisell in Middlebury, died, a victim of influenza, at his home in Cornwall, Wednesday. He lacked only a few weeks of having reached his 34th birthday, and he died in the house in which he was born. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Ella S. Muller. His father died several years ago. He is also survived by a younger brother, Emory, and a sister, Stella, who is now the wife of Roy Vanclette of Cornwall. The funeral services will be held at St. Mary's Church in Middlebury Saturday morning. They were to have been held this morning, but were postponed in the hope that the mother, who has herself been ill, might be able to attend the funeral.

N. E. M. P. A. Meeting

Annual Meeting of the County N. E. M. P. A. will be held at Middlebury Friday February 14 at 2 P. M. in the Farm Bureau office. Election of officers and appointment of delegates to attend the annual meeting at Boston, February 27 and 28.

President Church announces that there will be no speakers present. The "Flu" throughout the county is so severe that it does not warrant a large meeting.
